

REMEMBER THE TROPICANA!

Frank Chavez is best known in our community for successfully standing up to City Hall and stopping the City of San Jose's hostile "eminent domain" takeover of Tropicana Shopping Center in 2002-03.

Frank was a key leader in defending the property rights of dozens of small property owners and tenants whose very livelihoods were threatened by the City's takeover attempt.

Frank Chavez believes the voters of Santa Clara County are tired of corruption and scandals in local government. He believes voters are fed up with policies being determined by high-priced lobbyists and special interests, instead of voters. He supports Mayor Chuck Reed's efforts at governmental and ethics reform and will fight for such reforms at the county level as well.

Frank believes we are in a time of crisis. We have a budget crisis. A health care crisis. A housing crisis. A crisis with crime and gangs in our neighborhoods. These crises will not be solved by political gamesmanship and business-as-usual policies. They will be solved by bold leadership that's not afraid to fight for what's right. That's the type of leadership Frank will provide the voters in District 2.
